Subject: Bombay Insolvency Rules, 1910
Proposed amendments in the ---

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 2891/5-H dated the 7th July 1948, on the above subject, I am directed by the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Judges to state that their Lordships approve of the revised draft amendments forwarded to this office by your letter under reference subject to the following alteration viz. item 6 in the revised draft amendments should be read as follows:-

The words "such time as this court shall order" in Form 104 shall be deleted and a blank space provided in their place, with a marginal note against this blank space as follows; "Insert here the time fixed by the Court or the words 'Further orders of the Court'".

I am to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the proposed draft amendments under Section 113 of the Presidency-towns Insolvency Act, 1909. I am to add that if further consideration of item 6 by Government has is likely to take sometime, sanction may be accorded to the rest of the amendments at a very early date.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/- K.K. Dastur
